PHIL NEAL

THE contrasting halves of our game against Crewe on Saturday was real Jekyll and Hyde material.

It was a great show of character for the team to come back from a two goal half-time deficit to take the three points but we certainly can't say we are defending at all well—and that is very concerning for me.

As for Preston, our opponents tonight, they'll beseeking from having lost to a 25 yard goal at Southend—similar I believe to the one we scored on Saturday to take the points from Crewe. We can expect Preston to be in determined mood this evening.

If there is one lesson to be learned from the week-end events it is that we should be looking to start the game in the correct frame of mind, to be positive from the start and not to wait for our opponents to bring the game to us.

Unfortunately we find ourselves in a situation just over a month into the season where our resources are being stretched. We lose Mark Winstanley tonight for the first of his three-match suspension and, as I assess the situation shortly after the Crewe game, I also expect to be without Mark Came because of injury. In fact the early signs are that we'll be without Camey for a few weeks.

What was really heartening on Saturday, however, was the performance in midfield of Steve Thompson. I thought he was a shining example to the rest of the lads throughout the 90 minutes—whereas the team as a whole only really performed to the standards we expect in the second half.

And I must make mention of the standard of refereeing we saw from George Courtney.

He revived my belief in English football after it had taken a couple of serious knocks. I think he contributed quite significantly to the entertainment value by allowing two entertaining teams to get on with it. It was the first game for a while that I've had the privilege to watch in which no player has been booked.

I'm not saying that's the be all and end all. Bookings and discipline have their place. But take the physical challenge out of our game and you don't have the game as we know it.

It has taken a world class referee to bring back a true sense of value and proportion.

An update of today's opposition

Preston North End make their second appearance of the season at Burnden Park, eager to avenge a 1-2 defeat in the pre-season Lancashire Cup competition. Once again we welcome their players, officials and supporters.

Last season proved to be a traumatic one for the men from Deepdale. A campaign which began with much promise after reaching the play-offs in 1988-89, soon turned sour. Only one point from the first five games, with 15 goals conceded, set the tone and in the end North End only escaped relegation by two points. Had both Cardiff and Fulham won their last games, instead of going down to defeats against Bury and Leyton Orient, then North End's 0-2 defeat at Shrewsbury would have consigned the club to the Fourth Division. As it was four wins and two draws from the last nine games just about did the trick.

41 year old Les Chapman, who finished his illustrious 746 game Football League career at Deepdale, took over from John McGrath as manager during the season, initially on a caretaker basis. During the summer the popular Chapman has strengthened his playing staff with the acquisition of Bury goalkeeper Simon Farnworth, and Wigan's captain Steve Senior and their flying winger Dave Thompson, the latter being seen as a direct replacement for Brian Mooney, who has joined Sheffield Wednesday on an extended loan basis with a view to a £150,000 transfer.

After a disappointing 1-3 opening day home defeat by Grimsby, Preston drew 3-3 at Reading before going down 0-4 at home to Tranmere. The club were knocked out of the Rumbelows Cup losing 1-5 to Chester at Macclesfield after a 2-0 first leg win at Deepdale. Last Friday Preston went down to a last minute goal, losing 2-3 at Southend United.

A summer move to Deepdale gave former Wanderers' keeper Simon Farnworth the chance to resurrect his League career after falling out of favour at Bury. The 26 year-old made 113 League appearances for Bolton and also clocked up a League century during his time at Gigg Lane. Ironically, after being understudy to Gary Kelly at Bury, Farnworth is forced to compete with his brother Alan Kelly at Deepdale. The 22-year-old missed only four games

Understanding the 'Professional' Foul

Following an incident in a recent Barclays League match, there was some confusion regarding the interpretation of the recent mandatory instruction to referees from the International F.A. Board with regard to an instance of deliberate handball. The instruction reads: 'If, in the opinion of the referee, a player who is moving towards his opponents' goal with an obvious opportunity to score a goal is intentionally and physically impeded by unlawful means, i.e. an offence punishable by a free kick (or a penalty kick), thus denying the attacking player's team the aforesaid goal-scoring opportunity, the offending player shall be sent off the field of play for serious foul play in accordance with Law XII (n).'

The important words here are 'physically impeded' and The Football Association has confirmed that intentional handling of the ball is specifically excluded and that referees are not empowered to dismiss a player for a handling offence. A caution may be (and, in the particular case, was), issued to the offending player under Law XII (n)—being 'guilty of ungentlemanly conduct'.

FOOTBALL WATCH A JOINT APPROACH TO COMBAT FOOTBALL HOOLIGANISM WITH THE WEST MIDLANDS

Football Watch started in the West Midlands in August 1988, you may recall we forwarded you a copy asking you to assist us by publishing the concept of Football Watch in your match day programme preceding any visit to the West Midlands.

Football Watch is in operation for the forthcoming season and again I seek your co-operation in explaining to your travelling fans the type of behaviour which is unacceptable to the clubs in our area, to local law abiding football supporters and to West Midlands Police.

The following unacceptable behaviour will not be tolerated at football grounds in the West Midlands area:-

- Obscene chanting
- Obscene gestures
- Racist remarks
- Racist chants
- Throwing missiles
- Threatening or violent behaviour
- Any criminal act

Full co-operation is essential if the venture is to succeed, following the positive steps taken by the police and supporters organisations we have seen a decrease in the number of arrests and ejections for the first time in 5 years here in the West Midlands, but we must not be complacent, it only takes a small minority to spoil the enjoyment of others.

I hope that you will join us in doing all we can to eradicate incidents of football hooliganism in our area, in the interests of making football a safe and pleasurable spectator sport.

I have enclosed a current copy of Football Watch and ask again for your co-operation in enlightening your fans to the behaviour expected of them when they visit the West Midlands during 1990/91.

(Letter from West Midlands Police Headquarters)

'FOREIGN' PLAYERS IN UEFA COMPETITIONS

With English clubs making a welcome return to European Club action this week it would seem an appropriate point at which to review the eligibility of 'foreign' players for this and future year's competitions.

Of the sixteen (or fewer) players chosen to take part in any match, no more than four may be included who cannot play for the national team of the national association to which that club belongs. (In other words, for an English team, a maximum of four non-English players).

UEFA have however provided for a transitional period in which 'foreign' players registered before May 3 1988 will not count as one of the four permitted under this regulation until the termination of their registration with that club or until the end of season 1990/91, whichever is the earlier. (This will mean that from next season an English club participating in European club competition would be able to play a maximum of four non-English players, irrespective of when they were signed).

BOLTON 3 CREWE 2

Saturday's 5 goal thriller was certainly a game of two halves. Trailing by 2 goals at half time, Tony Philliskirk opened up his League account for this season with a fine looping header and then Scott Green hit what could be an early candidate for goal of the season. More Bolton pressure followed and Julian Darby popped up once again with a fine shot to secure the points and open up our home League account.

IN CONVERSATION

A look at some of the great soccer stars

TONY HATELEY

Maybe with tradition in mind, Tony Hateley chose the Football League's oldest club to commence his soccer career. Aerial power was his main asset and Notts County had been familiar with this style with memories of Tommy Lawton. His first transfer took Tony to another founder member club in Aston Villa. Tony found the knack of scoring goals and he netted 90 "in three good seasons at Villa", despite lowly league position. This prompted Chelsea to make a successful £100,000 transfer bid and he featured in the 1967 all London FA Cup Final against Spurs.

Tony said, "After the Final we went on tour abroad and upon my return I took the family for a quick holiday to Yarmouth." Little did he know that a second £100,000 move was on the cards to Liverpool.

TONY HATELEY

He continued, "The police somehow found me on the beach and a phone call to Tommy Docherty resulted in me being called to the Savoy Hotel. Awaiting was Bill Shankly, who told me to come and join the best club in the world."

After one season at Anfield he was off to spells with Coventry, Birmingham, back to Notts County before a last move to Oldham where he completed his playing career, having to retire with a knee injury.

But following behind was his son Mark, who was regularly scoring goals at school. Tony said, "He turned down Notts Forest, Liverpool and Manchester United and I advised him to join Coventry.

I told him they didn't have a big squad and with injuries likely to occur he'd be sure of a place." Dad's advice took effect and England recognition led to a three year lucrative spell in Italy and two years in Monaco with Glenn Hoddle. It was during the past summer that Graeme Souness swooped with a reputed £1m to take Mark to Glasgow Rangers enabling him still to participate in the season's European Cup competition. It's only early season but Mark has yet to be on the losing side at Ibrox.

What is Dad doing these days? "I'm working for Thwaites Brewery, a great company to work for. As part of a sponsorship package with Preston I enjoy entertaining our guest at Deepdale on match day. I work on the Free Trade outlets in the Southport and Preston areas."

Tony admits to losing a little bit of interest in football but enjoys a game of golf, playing occasionally in celebrity competitions.

WE caught up with Tony just after he had got his breath back straight after Saturday's exciting victory over Crewe. Relieved to have opened his League account for the season and eager to add some more to it this evening against his previous club, Preston, the likeable Geordie talked fondly of his sport spell at Deepdale. "Yes I enjoyed it even though I was only there for about six months, scoring 7 goals in 13 games." Tony had helped to get Preston into the play-offs but just before the last 2 or 3 games of that campaign he got injured and although he actually recovered for the play-off games themselves he wasn't selected, something that obviously upset him at the time.

On leaving Preston to join the ranks here at Burnden he received lots of letters from North End supporters wishing him well, something he was very grateful for, adding "I had a good rapport with the fans there and it was nice of them to show their appreciation."

Last season of course was a good one for Tony, leading goalscorer with 25 and TV recognition on Kick-off as part of Bros something he and David Reeves enjoyed doing. "Yes it was good fun and publicity for the club at the same time." The blonde duo hit it off right from the start of the season making it very difficult for opposing defenders to keep them in check, Tony talked about the goals he scored last season stating that the first League goal he scored for the club at Cardiff within four minutes of the game starting was special to him although the highlight was the goal at Swindon which he scored with his right foot in that memorable 3-3 encounter. "The Swindon matches proved to us, especially after their fine season, that we can compete well with teams from a higher level and we are all looking forward with anticipation to the games with Coventry" he added.

When asked did he feel under pressure this season after such a good one last year he admitted "It's going to be difficult after hitting 25 last season but I'll take every game as it comes and do my best." He has many little superstitutions on match days adding "Oh yes, I only warm up inside the dressing room and not on the pitch with the rest of the lads, as they do say 1/2 hour before the game starts".

Now that Tony takes the penalties for the Wanderers he confided that he thought that forwards should always take them, he always practices them in training the day before a match and more importantly checks out the opposing goalkeeper and makes his decision which way he will place them if the occasion arises.

Ton's No. 1 fan down here at every home game is his pretty wife Lesley Ann, his childhood sweetheart since their school days; they live in Shaw near Oldham and regularly have meals out with former team-mates from Oldham Andy Ritchie, Frank Bunn, Andy Rhodes and their wives.

When Tony was asked for predictions this season, he was not forthcoming, preferring not to tempt fate but instead added, "I think the Third Division is very strong with quite a number of good sides, probably the hardest of the divisions this season."

Off the field he relaxes with a game of golf or snooker, more often than not with his best mate Phil Brown, on which he adds "I enjoy beating Brownie at snooker although I usually let him beat me at golf."

Make no doubt about it, Tony's gunning for more goals this season, there's no way he wants to lose his crown as leading goalscorer and that's good news for the Burnden Park faithful with Tony finally adding "The fans have been superb since I joined the Club and I would just like to thank them and to tell them to keep up the good work."

Bolton's youth team rose to the occasion to progress in the Country's Premier Youth Cup competition by defeating Preston North End at Burnden.

It was a thrilling encounter and the Wanderers' keeper Chris Clarke was on top form to keep out a number of attempts from the visitors.

His first save came in the 14th minute when Jason Kerfoot got clear but Clarke turned his attempted chip over the bar. Six minutes later the 'keeper was booked for handling outside the area when he dived at the feet of David Christie in a one against one situation.

Wanderers took the lead on the half hour with a classy goal from Craig Lewin. He collected the ball on the touchline before weaving his way into the penalty area before curling an angled shot into the top corner of the net.

Four minutes from the interval Steve Coffey's pin point pass sent Barry Smith clear and he shot home from 12 yards out.

Preston applied the pressure in the early stages of the second half in an attempt to get back into the game but once again Clarke got in the way of their efforts.

In the 62nd minute Bolton had the chance to secure the tie when a penalty was awarded after Alan Delgarno had attempted to pull back Craig Lewin. Dean Edge unfortunately blasted the kick high over the bar but a minute later Nicky Bentham made it 3-0 when he headed home from a right wing corner.

Clarke was eventually beaten ten minutes from time when Lee Cartwright rifled home from 25 yards but in injury time Dean Edge made amends for his earlier penalty miss by slotting home Bolton's fourth.

SAFE HANS

A lighthearted look at football

IF this evening's game is anything like the one the two sides fought out in the Final of the Lancashire Manx Cup last month then we are in for a cracker. That night we saw plenty of fine attacking football that sent the fans home well satisfied and we are looking for a repeat performance tonight.

Already this season the supporters have really got behind the lads especially at Shrewsbury and Huddersfield where you would have wondered who were the home side with tremendous vocal support and in such numbers as well. On the subject of travelling supporters and we must match as many as any other club in the Third Division. I must applaud the behaviour of the Preston fans last month even in defeat they were well behind and sporting a true credit to their Club.

You know it's about time something was done about the choices of 'live games' on TV this season because surprise, surprise, it's the same old games and same old teams that keep being given the treatment. Of course we all know that Liverpool, Manchester United, Everton, Arsenal and Tottenham are the big five but surely it would be good for the game in general to not 'overkill' and show some other teams for a change. Don't get me wrong, I know football followers want to watch the skills of Gazza and John Barnes but our Football League is the best in the world with plenty of other teams producing great entertaining football. The last season or so has seen a marked improvement in coverage of the Second, Third and Fourth Division clubs on TV with 'Kick-Off', Granada's weekly programme being responsible for this. There could be further improvement though by say making the programme last for an hour instead of the present 30 minutes and then they could really give more time and focus to the lower divisions.

The North West has always been a hot bed of football and sport in general but we do not get enough of it on television and now it seems we are losing more and more of it to satellite TV with exclusive deals going on, seemingly week by week which will deny us even more unless of course we subscribe to what is on offer.

On closing tonight, let's hope the lads can maintain the second half performance that we had against Crewe with goals of the highest quality. It was a tremendous fight back but very nerve-wrecking at times. Three tricky away games await us now, including of course the Rumbelows Cup tie at Coventry, so it's going to be a very busy period over the next couple of weeks.

BOLTON will tonight be looking to extend their unbeaten home record against Preston that goes back to April 1974 when both clubs were in Division Two.

It was the Wanderers final home game of that season and they had gone seven games without defeat whilst North End hadn't won in eleven attempts.

The form book was turned around that day as second half goals from John Bird and Mike Elwiss secured the points for Preston, although it didn't prevent them from suffering relegation.

North End were the first ever visitors to Burnden park when, on 11th September 1895, a crowd of 3,000 attended a benefit game for Dai Jones.

Tony Philliskirk equalises in last season's exciting encounter

David Smith scored the only goal of the match for the visitors but in their first competitive encounter on the ground, in March 1896, the result was reversed thanks to a Bob Jack strike.

Preston didn't secure a league victory at Burnden until 1903 when they won 2-0 in what was the first game between the clubs outside the top division. Within two years both the Wanderers and Preston were back in the top flight and it was in that sphere that Bolton registered their best success against tonight's visitors.

In October 1924 Burnden witnessed a 6-1 win thanks to goals from Ted Vizard, David Jack (2), Joe Smith (2) and Joe Cassidy. The previous March Bolton recorded a 2-0 win, nothing unusual about that apart from the fact that the goals came from the Jack brothers, David and Rollo who were both following in their fathers footsteps as Burnden favourites.

Recent encounters have been close affairs, a Steve Thompson goal separating the sides in March 1989, whilst last season two late efforts from Tony Philliskirk gave Bolton the points after Ian Bogie had put Preston in front.

Last month the Wanderers again had to come from behind to win 2-1 in the Lancashire Cup final. Graham Shaw gave Preston the lead but the cup was secured thanks to two David Reeves goals.

Our overall League record against Preston is as follows:-

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

ALAN GOWLING came to Burnden Park for what was then a club record fee of £12,000 in March 1978.

He began his career with Manchester United and won England under 23 honours whilst at Old Trafford. In June 1972 he moved to Huddersfield Town for a £60,000 fee and three years later he went to Newcastle in a £70,000 deal.

At St. James' Park he formed a formidable striking partnership with Malcolm MacDonald and did likewise at Burnden with Frank Worthington during the 1978/79 season.

He became chairman of the PFA whilst at Bolton and in May

ALAN GOWLING

1982 he was given a free transfer. Preston North End snapped him up and he scored 5 goals in 40 League appearances in what was his last League season.

He scored in each of his final three League games, which North End won, thus securing their Third Division place.

1923/24 SEASON

The season opened full of promise with the club having won its first major trophy four months earlier but the first two games marked the Wanderers as a team to be beaten. A 3-2 reverse at Cardiff was followed by a scoreless draw at Sheffield United where John Smith received his marching orders for kicking an opponent.

Dick Pym saved a Jack Evans penalty against Cardiff at Burnden to earn the Wanderers a 2-2 draw and the first League win of the season came in the fourth game when Sheffield United were beaten 4-2 at Burnden. John Smith scored a hat trick to gain some compensation for his sending off in the first game whilst Harry Nuttall scored his first League goal for Bolton.

On the 8th September Bolton paid their first visit to Manchester City's new ground at Maine Road, drawing 1-1. John Smith had given the Wanderers a sixth minute lead but ex Wanderer Frank Roberts found City's equaliser.

Only 3 defeats in the next 13 games kept Bolton with the leading group in the division although 6 of these games passed without them finding the net.

David Jack— Won his first England International Cap

During November £1,500 was spent on Rollo Jack, brother of David, from Plymouth Argyle for whom he had only played 15 league games. He made his debut on 22nd December in a 1-1 draw at Notts County taking the place of his brother who had been injured a week earlier when County were trounced 7-1 at Burnden.

An undefeated 7 games during December, in which only two points were dropped, saw the Wanderers in 2nd place at the turn of the year, 2 points behind leaders Cardiff.

1923/24 SEASON

The impressive run continued into January when a David Jack equaliser in the 90th minute won a point in a 2-2 draw at Everton. Wanderers trainer George Eccles, the most superstitious man in the Club, blamed the late reply on the fact that he hadn't worn his usual neck tie until late in the game.

A week later another late equaliser from Jack gave Bolton a 2-2 draw at Hull in the first round of the Cup. 40,315 saw the replay at Burnden which was won by 4-0.

The first defeat in 13 games came at the end of January when Aston Villa won a 1-0 at Villa Park in a game that was attended by the Duke of York. Then came two successive defeats at the hands of Liverpool. Firstly the Anfielders won 4-1 at Burnden in the 2nd round of the FA Cup, the game being Joe Smith's and Ted Vizard's 29th consecutive FA Cup tie, they then registered a 3-1 league win on their own pitch.

Bolton got back to winning ways the following week by defeating Nottingham Forest 4-0 at Burnden but the crowd was only 12,327. For the next home game it went down to 9,886, the smallest of the season, a goalless draw with Burnley taking place during an arctic snap.

Things turned back into the Wanderers favour during March with four wins and one draw from their five outings which included a revenge victory over Liverpool by 4-1. David Jack also won his first England International Cap against Wales at Blackburn.

On March 29th the Wanderers won 2-0 at Preston thanks to a goal from the Jack brothers and a week later, when Preston visited Burnden, the crowd were provided with a novelty in the shape of entertainment by wireless, with the apparatus fixed at the Great Lever end of the new stand. The game ended in a scoreless draw.

Three defeats in the final five games saw any title hopes vanish but 4th position was once again considered a successful nine months work. Only Blackburn and Liverpool had defeated the Wanderers by more than one goal and only champions Huddersfield had a better defensive record.

During May another tour to the Continent was undertaken and this included a 9-0 win over Fortuna in Leipzig and a 3-1 win over both Ajax and Leeds United in Amsterdam.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand — one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
